Readings: Eccl 1:2, 2:21-23 ;
Col 3:1-5, 9-11; Lk 12:13-21

Response:

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Alleluia, alleluia!

Confirmation Congratulations

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the children who received the Sacrament of Confirmation on Thursday, 31st July. May the grace of the Holy Spirit continue to guide and strengthen you as you grow in faith, hope, and love.

We express our deep gratitude to the dedicated educators Mrs. Kerry Power, Mr. Tim Snelling, and Mrs. Christine Hibbard for their unwavering commitment in preparing the children for the sacrament. We also thank the PPC members who generously facilitated the parent engagement sessions. Our sincere appreciation goes to the parents, sponsors, and families whose support and witness to the faith have nurtured and accompanied these young people on their journey.

We are especially grateful to Bishop Anthony for his pastoral presence and spiritual leadership in conferring the sacrament.

Thank you to the musicians whose gifts enriched the liturgy so beautifully, and to the altar servers, readers and volunteers who contributed to the reverence and joy of the celebration.

Well done to all involved in making this a truly memorable and faith-filled occasion.

Homelessness Appeal

Next weekend, our parish will hold the annual Homelessness Appeal for CatholicCare. Many in our community are without a safe place to call home. CatholicCare supports them through services, including local programs like Dom's Place (Hornsby) and Mary Mac's Place (Woy Woy). Donation envelopes will be available in pews and at the back of the Church, and can be placed in the collection or donation box near the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

New Weekly Mailout

In the coming weeks, our parish will transition away from using Mailchimp to distribute our weekly emails. Due to ongoing issues—such as emails not being received or properly displayed—we will instead be moving to a new platform called PACEM, which also serves as our updated parish database system.

To continue receiving weekly updates from the parish, we kindly ask you to scan the QR code provided and complete your registration.

Please note: Mailchimp will be deactivated on 30th August, and beginning in September, all communications will be sent via the new PACEM system.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation during this transition.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

First Reading

Book of Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

What do people gain by all their work?

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity!

For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skillfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

You turn men back into dust and say: 'Go back, sons of men.'

To your eyes a thousand years
are like yesterday, come and gone,
no more than a watch in the night.

R

You sweep men away like a dream,
like grass which springs up in the morning.
In the morning it springs up and flowers:
by evening it withers and fades.

R

Make us know the shortness of our life
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants.

R

In the morning, fill us with your love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
give success to the work of our hands.

R

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

Second Reading

Letter of St Paul to the Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Seek the things that are above, where Christ is.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and, in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 12:13-21

To whom will all this wealth of yours go?

A man in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.' 'My friend,' he replied 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.'

Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do: I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say, to my soul: 'My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time.'" But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
